London, Oct. 14.-The coal miners' delegates at a meeting this morning in connection with the crisis resulting from the miners rejection of the owners' wage proposals decided that the notices of a strike, given some time ago, should expire Saturday. *

This means that the long threat ened coal mining strike will begin next Monday unless there is some new intervention to prevent it.

The official figure of the ballot taken by the miners to decide upon acceptance or rejection of the basic line of production offered by the owners beyond which an increase of wages would be granted, was give out today as follows

For acceptance, 181,428. Against acceptance, 635,098.

It was decided to send the result of the ballot and the conference's decision to Premier Lloyd George.
